Death Certificate

(TL:VISA-180; 10-15-1998)

Available. The applicant must state his or her relation to the deceased and the reason for the request. The certificate is obtainable from the Civil Status Office, Registrar Office, Port Louis. Processing time is approximately 8 days. Fees vary depending on the amount of information on the certificate.

Passports: Information on Travel Documents

Travel Document—In addition to the Mauritius passport, the Government of Mauritius will also issue a travel document to any Commonwealth citizen who lost their passport and who has to travel back to their country of residence, or has to travel to a specific destination and return to Mauritius. The travel document will have the legal value of any travel document issued by any country in lieu of a passport and will not affect the national status of the holder.

The travel document is a four-page document, light blue in color, and will be issued by the Mauritius passport officer, or by an overseas representative upon authorization of the Prime Minister, and is valid for one trip only. The front page of the document bears a rectangle with two dotted lines for the applicant's name. It also contains the word "Mauritius" in small block letters, the arms of Mauritius, the words "Travel Document" in bold characters and the number of the document. The applicant's photo, the seal and data appear on the second page. Page 3 is reserved for visas. At the bottom of page 3 are the words "Remarks and Observations": "The possession of this travel document does not exempt the holder from compliance with the Immigration Regulation in force in the country to which the holder is processing." Page 4 is for any endorsements.

Certificate of Identity—Available upon application to the National Identity Office, Oceangate House, Ground Floor, Room 11, Victoria, Mahe.
